The Auschwitz Escape

A World War II thriller based on a true story

Jacob Weisz- fled Germany to join an underground resistance group running guns in Belgium. When a rescue operation goes horribly wrong, he is trapped in a cattle car on a train headed to southern Poland—with only one likely destination.

Jean-Luc Leclerc- is a Protestant pastor in Sedan, France who risked everything to provide relief as Jews from all over Europe arrive at his door seeking protection.

These two men are chosen to risk one of the most daring and danger feats imaginable and alert the Allies to the awful truth of what is happening in Poland. Millions of lives are counting on their success.
